FRONT COVER: Bonnyrigg's effort thwarted by the head of Macarthur keeper John Crawley

Bonnyrigg's James Warburton and Macarthur's Trevor Whiddett battle for the ball.

ON THE ROAD To The Title

Tale of two penalties

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 0 Macarthur Rams 1

Mark Fowler was at the Serbian Centre

Nothing summed up Bonnyrigg's night against league leaders Macarthur Rams more than seeing skipper Paul Richardson blast an injury time penalty high over the bar.

While Richardson will reproach himself for the miss - his first that many club officials could remember - he has no real need to. Mainly because the White Eagles should never have still been 1-0 down at that stage of the game, and also because his all-action performance in the preceeding 90 minutes should not be forgotten.

Bonyrigg went into this game after two four goal hauls in their previous two matches, but late injuries disrupted their preparation. For Macarthur coach Casey Debruin moved their team around slightly to accommodate a defender to mark Bonnyrigg's danger man Robert Gomez.

Gomez was a class act though, with his ball skills and dribbling ability a joy to watch. Unfortunately for the Bonnyrigg fans however he was unable to put the ball into the back of the net that his performance deserved.

For Macarthur their defence was solid. From goalkeeper John Crawley who dominated his penalty area through to the imposing figures of Dion Valle and Richard Lloyd, they fought for every ball and dived in for every challenge.

In fact, it was a game where nobody was shirking a challenge, and referee Brett Hugo booked four players from the home side and two from the away team, plus sent off Macarthur's Ben Willard for two yellow card offences in the 73rd and 80th minute.

Before a minute had gone on the clock Bonnyrigg's Gomez served notice of his intentions, running across the edge of the penalty area before hitting a shot straight at Crawley.

Eric Williams for the Rams repeated Gomez's trick after 4 minutes, shooting straight at Sasha Bozic in the White Eagles goal, and just five minutes later Colin Luff for Bonnyrigg was forced wide but did well to clip the ball past the advancing Crawley. Fortunately for the Rams the ball floated across the face of the goal with none of the on-rushing attackers able to reach it in time.

Bonnyrigg were looking more dangerous at this point, however in the 16th minute disaster struck for them when David Reid drove a ball into the penalty area. After some deliberation a penalty was awarded for handball, much to the distress of the White Eagles players who claimed the ball had hit the hand and not the other way around.

Richard Lloyd, with two goals to his credit already for the Rams this season, made no mistake from the spot to make it 1-0 to Macarthur.

Bonnyrigg refused to lay down though and after some neat play Richardson broke clear but a timely challenge saw the ball go wide just as he was about to shoot.

Macarthur created a couple of chances around the half hour mark, as they enjoyed what turned out to be their best spell of the game. Shane Knight had an effort blocked, then Bozic continued to justify his inclusion in the team with a timely block.

The best move of the match came in the 38th minute. Richardson ran across the pitch, before slipping a ball through to Gomez on the right hand side. His cut back was perfect for Javier Mancino, whose header had the power but not the direction, just missing the left-hand upright.

The second half kicked off slowly, and it wasn't until the 58th minute that James Warburton headed over the bar from a Bonnyrigg corner.

A goalmouth scramble in the 66th minute should have indicated to the White Eagles fans that this wasn't to be their night, as a number of players saw shots blocked or unable to get a clear strike on goal. If that wasn't bad enough just a minute later came another scramble, which saw Crawley save one effort well before somehow managing to drag his big frame of the floor and save the second effort. It was a moment where if Bonnyrigg had scored they could very well have gone on with this one.

Bonnyrigg continued to attack, Gomez shooting once again at Crawley, then the same player linking with Mancino before substitute Ben Green fired wide.

In the 80th minute came Willard's dismissal, which looked to prove costly with time up and a foul in the area giving Bonnyrigg a chance to get something out of the game. To the despair of all around Richardson's kick was ballooned over the bar, and just a minute later Paul Dee smashed a shot that looked to be in, the ball just flying over.

Bonnyrigg dominated the first 20 minutes or so, and most of the second half, but most of the efforts either were hit straight at Crawley or they failed to hit the target at all. Despie that Macarthur withstood their battering and created a few chances of their own. It was a performance worthy of a team that have serious title aspirations.

Macarthur coach Debruin was delighted with the result, although said he realised that Bonnyrigg had been unlucky. He was happy with his reshuffles in defence working, as Bonnyrigg dangerman Gomez had been kept relatively quiet. A team with a settled squad of players and good depth, his players will learn from last year and that years experience will stand them in good stead this time around.

Bonnyrigg coach John Turner had mixed emotions, saying it was the best his team had played all season. While upset his team hadn't picked up all three points or at the very least a draw, he claimed his players knew they had played well and wouldn't need any lifting during training.

Both teams should be there or there abouts at the end of the season, and Macarthur will be delighted with a job that in the end was superbly done - with a little help of course.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles: Bozic, Xuereb, Racker, Dragas, Richardson, Mancino (Vulic 83') Luff, Ghisso (Green 69'), Gomez, Warburton, Dee.

Hobbs late strike sinks Gunners

Sutherland Sharks 3
Ryde City 2

Peter Smith was at Seymour Shaw

Sutherland Sharks striker Craig Hobbs scored a sensational winner in the 89th minute to conclude a dramatic game at Seymour Shaw. Hobbs, who is yet to show the form he displayed in the latter half of last season, proved he hadn't lost any of his confidence with a sublime piece of skill. Confronted by two defenders on the edge of the area, Hobbs cut between them and finished superbly into the far corner of the net with the outside of his foot.

Hobbs had been unlucky earlier in the game as well, with a 19th minute effort grazing the post. However, it was Ryde who took the lead in the same minute, with Scott Ollerenshaw doing the work on the left wing before crossing neatly onto the head of Craig Sharpley. Sharpley made no mistake in making it 1-0 to the visitors.

Not long after Ryde could have doubled their lead, but Jason Lal volleyed over the bar from 12 metres out with just the goalkeeper in front of him.

The game was going backwards and forwards and it was no surprise when a second goal came. This time it was the home team who scored, Levi Stephen picking up a deflection of a Cord Tolson effort and steering the ball home.

On the 40th minute Stephen got his and Sutherland's second. Ryde City captain Chris Cowley was adjudged to have fouled Malcolm Bideau, and Stephen converted from the spot, despite Les Bihari's best efforts in Ryde's goal.

Sutherland's 2-1 half time lead only lasted 12 minutes in the second half, as Ryde fought back with the second penalty of the game. A handball infringement saw John Koch finish confidently from the spot to level the scores at 2-2.

With 10 minutes to go Stephen came so close to grabbing a hat-rick. His fierce drive was well stopped by Bihari, but the ball trickled onto the up-right. With players running in to finish off the move Bihari picked himself up and pounced on the ball.

If the Sharks thought this was to be there last chance though, they hadn't accounted for Craig Hobbs' late intervention that left the Sharks fans celebrating their first win of the season.

Ryde would be left desperately disappointed that their efforts didn't pick up a point, while for Sutherland a few positional changes saw them improve on recent outings. One such change was the moving of Bideau to sweeper, a role he performed confidently.

Sutherland: Olla, Daley, Richardson (Harris 75'), Summers, Bideau, Markopoulos, Stephen, Hobbs, Giraldo, Tolson.

Ryde: Bihari, Segreto, Cowley, Moffit, Watkins, Kock, Peatey, Sharpley,Cetinay (Portelli 90') Lal, Ollerenshaw.

Bankstown too strong for Wanderers

Bankstown City Lions 4 Eastern Suburbs 1

Stewart Van Bentum replaced the Super League's top scorer in Zoki Adioski, and promptly scored twice to help his team to a comfortable 2-0 victory.

With his first touch of the ball Van Bentum scored just three minutes after coming on, and then 12 minutes later his second goal made it 4-0 to the Lions. A late consolation for Easts was scored by Naoki Imaya, but his goal with two minutes to go merely made it 4-1.

Bonnyrigg whip over a cross in their Round 5 match.

Bankstown had a couple of early efforts in the first ten minutes, before veteran midfielder Mile Todoroski had a shot cleared off the line in the 15th minute. Bankstown didn't dwell on this near miss though, with a corner just a minute later been met by the head of tall defender Richard Luksic, who made the score 1-0 to Bankstown.

Eastern Suburbs nearly hit back just on the half hour mark, with Max Severes firing across the face of the goal, but unfortunately for the travelling Wanderers fans there was no one to able to get a touch to deflect it goalwards.

Neat work by the Lions just two minutes later saw Adioksi fire wide after a build up that involved a number of passes. Adioski had an even better chance just before half time, but his one on one effort with Con Anastasiadis saw him hit the upright.

Then came Van Bentum's meaningful first touch, and just a minute later the game was effectively over as Robert Issa, put through by Michael Hawrysiuk made it 3-0.

Van bentum then completed his double before Imaya's strike, leaving Bankstown with 3 wins from their first 5 games and Eastern Suburbs struggling with just a solitary point from their five games and having conceeded 14 goals in that time.

Bankstown City Lions: Premutico, T Josevski, R Luksic, D Luksic, Grozdanovski, Trpkoski, Hawrysiuk, Todoroski (G Issa), Adioski (Van Bentum), Codmani, R Issa (Nourl)

Eastern Suburbs: Anastasiadis, Pullicino, Darvill, Lawrence (Orhan), Canning, Stout, Ekinci, Imaya, Sevares, Somboli (Ozacardi), Mitakidis

Bulls punish Eagles at Ninevah Field

FAIRFIELD BULLS 1
PARRAMATTA EAGLES 0

Paul Goodwin was at Nineveh Field

Watched by Super League/State representative team coach Doug Utjesenovic, these two sides fought out a good battle, with neither really getting on top at any stage.

Utjesenovic was there to run his eye over likely prospects for the NSW team's game against Northern NSW in Newcastle next month.

Fairfield won the game by virtue of a crisply struck volley at the far post from the well positioned Matthew Borg, after a free kick had been floated over cleverly by Bulls' captain Martin Driene. It was one of many such crosses during the game, but the only one that the profligate strike force could get to grips with.

The locals' win was earned more by the solid midfield work of the club's Player of the Month Paul Bourke, by Phil Treharn and by outstanding sweeper George Zabetakis, whose performance was only marred by a caution late in the game, when the lively Parramatta wing back Ahmed Elrich burst through on the right in one of many enterprising raids and the former Minotaurs' man clumsily brought him down in his approach to the penalty area.

In the early stages of the game Marc Hoenselaars, Borg and Jason Falzon all failed to capitalise on good service by Driene who toiled hard on the flank, though still short of top condition.

Parramatta had a very good chance in the 12th minute when Anthony Mittiga slid in on the left of the box to beat Dragan Pupovac to a contested ball, but the goal-bound effort was hacked off the line by an alert Michael Vrankovic.

Ten minutes later, Eldrich, who showed abundant pace and was tearing past his markers with abandon, made a big run down the right and fired in a shot which was blocked by defenders, Grant Bard's follow up effort met a similar fate and finally Glen Meilak was denied by the sea of legs guarding the Bulls goal.

In the 28th Fairfield had their first clear cut chance to score, but this time they were denied by a goal line clearance, big defender Mark Reveley getting in the way of a strike by Borg.

Hoenselaars had made good progress down the left and made his way into the box before shooting powerfully. Jason Holmes could only palm the ball in the path of the oncoming Borg who tried to place his shot instead of going for power and that gave Reveley time to effect the clearance.

Borg was then denied by Holmes in the 37th after electing to shoot when Paul Bourke was handily placed to score. There were a few good moments in the second period as well.

A 48th minute lob from Vrankovic almost caught out Holmes who reacted well to effect the save and apart from the winning goal by Borg, it was mainly the veteran Dragan Pupovac who was busiest in the second half.

He was kept busy by the industrious Bard who had insufficient support.

In the 75th Reveley came up to join the attack and laid on a pass for Glen Meilak which the led to the latter hitting a clever chip which Pupovac saw late and tipped just over the bar. But that was the last real scoring opportunity by a shot shy Eagles side, missing another proven striker.

Winning coach Joe Watson was happy with his side and felt that Chris Giometti had done well after coming into the side for this game and overcoming a slow start to the first half. Also Driene worked hard as did the man Watson had been chasing for some years, Zabetakis. The wily Scot also was delighted with Borg who he feels is the best striker in the division.

And after this performance perhaps State coach Utjesenovic may feel the same way.

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, M Driene (Suzor 77) C Giometti, Grubba, Zabetakis, Vrankovic, Bourke, Treharn, Falzon (Mandic 85), Hoenselaars, Borg (Iocca 85),
Parramatta Eagles: Holmes, Elrich, O'Grady, Reveley, Dowling, G. Meilak (Olic 75), Boskovski, Bard, Mittiga, Islas, M. Meilak
Scorer: Fairfield: Mattthew Borg 54
Best for Fairfield: George Zabetakis
Best for Parramatta: Mauricio Islas

Yellow Cards: Vrankovic 23, Zabetakis 63, Suzor 89 (Fairfield) Mittiga 28 (Parramatta)

Demons Back to Winning Form at Henson Park

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE 1
BLACKTOWN CITY 2

Paul Goodwin was at Henson Park

Blacktown, with two well taken second half headers, snatched victory from a lively Canterbury side at Henson Park on Sunday evening to deny the home side a win in front of their own supporters yet again.

The Berries had a good run last year at the Marrickville ground, but having escaped with last second draws in their last two outings, they found it beyond their reach to make it three 'houdini acts' in a row.

The first half was a rather drab affair with the game coming to life only in the last quarter of an hour.

Jason Bennett went close for the visiting Demons twice in this period, the first time with a shot in the 32nd which Canterbury keeper Steve Tolios saved with his feet and the second with a similar effort that Simon Fedele cleared off the line in the 44th.

The Berries had a chance too a long range shot from Jim Nikas which deflected off a defender for a corner when looking goal bound.

Second half action was much more purposeful, both sides making numerous raids as they endeavoured to pick up maximum points.

Damien Brown got away down the left in the second minute after the break, but a brave save by Tolios kept him at bay.

After a sustained period of pressure Canterbury grabbed the lead in the 61st when a very high cross pumped over the advancing Fernando Greco from out wide on the right by Robbie Jerkovic reached a cluster of players hanging around the goal-mouth. Among those waiting were Nick Bosevski, Steve Christoforidis and Nikas, but it was Angelo Markopoulos who found the target from close range.

Blacktown came back strongly, with the fiery John Angelucci replaced by Stuart Cleary after 68 minutes and the latter was to play a big part in the revival.

The man who came of the bench to settle last year's Grand Final was again the hero as he rose high at the far post to head powerfully past Tolios in the73rd. The goal came only a minute after Aaron Holst had rattled the cross bar with a shot that saw the ball roll along the goal line where Tolios dived on it to make a desperate save. It was from a fine cross from the left byline by Damien Brown that Cleary was able to put his side level.

And it was Brown again who crossed the ball from a free kick, wide on the right, 40 yards out that led to the winner. It was such a well directed kick that at least two other players could have reached the ball before any defenders could get a look in, but it was Holst who did the damage this time with a well timed run and low header in the 80th.

Peter Sermanni robbed Fedele in the 87th and set sail for goal, but drove his effort wide, but when Jim Nikas burst into the penalty area and was tackled in sight of goal by Damien Foxe, well into stoppage time,

Canterbury supporters looked imploringly at referee Matthew Breeze for the awarding of a spot kick, but the unflappable official signalled a corner and the last chance was gone.

Blacktown coach Brian Brown said afterwards that he was delighted to get the three points. He pointed out that his side had dominated games recently without getting all of the points, so having worked hard in the second half, especially, it was pleasing to finally have something to show for it.

His decision to return to a two man attack meant that Cleary was left languishing on the bench at the start, Brown explaining that perhaps there was insufficient room for his three strikers to operate in. He was unsure if this was due to the individual players not complementing one another, but felt it had not been working.

A far-from-well Chris Bradley got through his first full game, in a defensive midfield role, with flying colours while Matthew Lowe, Foxe and Holst all did well for the Demons. Canterbury were best served by Terry Palapanis, Michael Raeburn and Nikas.

Canterbury: Tolios, M Raeburn, Palapanis, Mendes, Percy, Jerkovic (Ilic 65), Bosevski, Fedele, Nikas, Angelo Markopoulos, Christoforidis
Blacktown City: Greco, Lowe, D Brown, Holst, Cutler, Foxe, Bradley, Sermanni, Yates, Angelucci (Cleary 70) Bennett
Scorers: Canterbury: Angelo Markopoulos 61
Blacktown: Stuart Cleary 73, Aaron Holst 80
Best for Canterbury: Terry Palapanis
Best for Blacktown: Damien Foxe
Referee: Matthew Breeze.

Tigers Tear into the Coasties

LEICHHARDT TIGERS 3
CENTRAL COAST 0

Stuart Veitch was at Lambert Park

Leichhardt Tigers began their match against Central Coast with the confidence one would expect of a team back at home after putting 5 goals past a hapless Sutherland the week before.

Despite dominating the game, Leichhardt had to wait until an 83rd minute strike from Tom Badzaric to finally put the game out of reach of an outclassed Central Coast, who were fielding an inexperienced team which was sorely missing a number of first-team choices, including Scott Wells, Wes Bennett and Mark Drysdale.

The opening 25 minutes saw Leichhardt well in control all over the park, with Macolino in a deep central midfielder's role dominating possession of the ball, and providing his attackers with excellent service.

The first clear chance of the game came in the 10th minute when Anthony Tesoro unleashed a long range drive which went well over the crossbar.

Chris Lansdowne and Hassan Kdouh were a continual worry for the Coasties defence. Their speed and mobility combined with two perfectly weighted passes from Macolino, only thwarted by an advancing Gary Meier, demonstrated the seemingly effortless anticipation we have come to expect from the 44 year old goalkeeper.

It is indeed a remarkable show of longevity from Meier, who seems to have been playing at or near the top level through an entire generation of players.

Tesoro again found space on the left side in the 23rd minute and showed that he is not afraid to shoot from a distance, with this effort on target and needing two attempts from Meier to bring it under control.

It was left to some strong running with the ball from Peter Preston and Nathan Byrn to create the Coasties' only two chances of the half, which were comfortably dealt with by Mikuletic behind a tight Leichhardt defence led by sweeper Eric Hristodoulou.

After 25 minutes the Coasties began to settle and win some possession in the middle of the field, but Leichhardt continued to make a succession of goal scoring chances through Chris Lansdowne and Tom Badzaric, who was beginning to assert himself on the right side in midfield, creating a number of chances. Another penetrating run from the left side by Tesoro looked threatening for the Tigers in the 37th minute until he was illegally checked by Coasties Marcus Steele. Hassan Kdouh ran onto the loose ball, taking the advantage awarded by the referee, but skewed his shot high and wide to his right

Shortly after, in the 41st minute, Leichhardt's dominance was finally rewarded when a Gary Meier clearance (after a fine save from a difficult Lansdowne strike), was immediately returned to Lansdowne to slot past the veteran keeper to open his and Leichhardt's account for the afternoon.

While the second half saw a better performance from the Coasties, it was Leichhardt who continued to dominate, although the Tigers were to squander numerous chances. Macolino could not find the requisite power to trouble Meier with an uncontested header from a corner, and in a goalmouth scramble

Pettenon was also unable to beat a spreadeagled Gary Meier. Hassan Kdouh

ROUND Six PREVIEW

Canterbury-Marrickville v Parramatta Eagles

Canterbury-Marrickville are doing it tough at home this year, although they remain undefeated they would have preferred to convert one of their draws into a win. Their attacking strength will be tested against the big Parramatta defence, and that should be worth the admisison price alone!

A tough game for the Eagles this one, especially coming off last week's loss to Fairfield. Only scoring 4 goals in 5 games means their game shave been tight so far, however while their defence has been solid apart from in the one game against Bonnyrigg, their attack wil need to produce some goals.

Super Soccer tip - We tipped them last week and will do so again - Canterbury to squeeze home.

1999 - Canterbury-Marrickville Home Record - Played 3 Won 1 Drawn 2 Goals For 6 Goals Against 3

Canterbury-Marrickville Top Scorer - Jim Nikas 4 goals

Parramatta Eagles Away Record - Played 3 Drawn 1 Lost 2 Goals For 1 Goals Against 5

Parramatta Eagles Top Scorer - Grant Bard 2 goals

Past Two Matches; 18/5/97 - Canterbury-Marrickville 0 - Parramatta Eagles 6 (Mendez x3, Petrovski, Karavatakis, Holmes pen) 5/7/98 - Canterbury-Marrickville 2 (Nikas x2) - Parramatta Eagles 2 (Karavatakis, Petrovski)

Blacktown City v Leichhardt Tigers

Blacktown recovered well from their shock loss to the Central Coast to defeat Canterbury-Marrickville 2-1 away from home, and going into this match Blacktown are just a point behind the Tigers.

Leichhardt have got off to a great start this season and their customary mean defence is looking good once again. The introduction of some young players on the bench also bodes well for the Tigers, although Arno Bertogna's boys will be up against it here.

Super Soccer tip - Blacktown to win courtesy of home advantage

1999 - Blacktown City Home Record - Played 3 Won 2 Lost 1 Goals For 4 Goals Against 1

Blacktown City Top Scorer - Stuart Cleary 3 goals

Leichhardt Tigers Away Record - Played 2 Won 2 Goals For 7 Goals Against 2

Leichhardt Tigers Top Scorer - Chris Landsdowne 4 goals

Past Two Matches; 6/7/97 - Blacktown City 0 - Leichhardt Tigers 2 (Talcevski, Koch) 20/6/98 - Blacktown City 3 (Angelucci, Boudaher x2) - Leichhardt Tigers 0

Central Coast v Ryde City

Central Coast make a belated home appearance after a run of 5 away games.The Coasties performed creditably in those 5 matches with two wins and a draw, but now they need to start winning at home to ensure they don't throw that good start away.

Ryde suffered the heart-break of a late goal in their last match against Sutherland, and will be hoping their tough start to the season injury wise will soon heal up. They face a difficult task against the Coasties here though, knowing the home crowd will be looking forward to seeing their team for the first time in 1999.

Super Soccer tip - Central Coast

1999 - Central Coast Home Record - Debut Home match

Central Coast Top Scorer - Nathan Bym 4 goals

Ryde City Away Record - Played 3 Lost 2 Drawn 1 Goals For 4 Goals Against 6

Ryde City Top Scorer - Scott Ollerenshaw 2 goals

Past Match; 6/6/98 - Central Coast 0 - Ryde City 0

Sutherland Sharks v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

Sutherland will be fired up after collecting their first win of the season, but face a tough task here. Much will depend on last week's two goal hero Levi Stephen continuing his good form.

Bonnyrigg know they deserved points from their last outing against Macarthur, and coach John Turner is adament that his players will not need any pick-me-up. Sutherland will be hoping that for the second week in a row the White Eagles have no luck in front of goal.

Super Soccer tip - Bonnyrigg to bounce back from last week and collect all three points.

1999 - Sutherland Sharks Home Record - Played 3 Won 1 Lost 2 Goals For 5 Goals Against 9

Sutherland Sharks Top Scorer - Levi Stephen 3 goals

Bonnyrigg White Eagles Away Record - Played 2 Won 1 Drawn 1 Goals For 6 Goals Against 3

Bonnyrigg White Eagles Top Scorer - Robert Gomez 3 goals

Past Two Matches; 29/5/97 - Sutherland Sharks 0 - Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4 (Mancino, Dee, Luff x2) 5/7/98 - Sutherland Sharks 0 - Bonnyrigg White Eagles 0

Macarthur Rams v Bankstown City

Macarthur continue to lead the table at this early stage, and will be keen to pick up more points after their away win at Bonnyrigg. Their defence has let in just 6 goals in 5 games, and they will look to continue their meanness in that area. Only doubts will be if there are any injuries after their tough match with the White Eagles and also the likely suspension of Ben Willard, sent of in the same match.

Bankstown are capable of beating anyone on their day, and may have discovered a new goalscoring source in Stewart Van Bentum! They will get few chances against Macartur though, and will need to breach the Rams solid defence while also keeping an eye on the likes of Trevor Whiddett and Eric Williams.

Super Soccer tip - Macarthur - just in a close game.

1999 - Macarthur Rams Home Record - Played 3 Won 2 Drawn 1

Macarthur Rams Top Scorer - Trevor Whiddett, Richard Lloyd 3 goals

Bankstown City Away Record - Played 2 Won 1 Lost 1 Goals For 5 Goals Against 3

Bankstown City Top Scorer - Zoki Adioski 5 goals

Past Two Matches; 19/4/97 - Macarthur Rams 4 (Lindley, Reid, Macerola, Telisman) - Bankstown City 2 (Gomez x2) 9/8/98 - Macarthur Rams 2 (Whiddett, Williams) - Bankstown City 0

Eastern Suburbs v Fairfield Bulls

Eastern Suburbs are struggling after five rounds, and conceeding too many goals. The Wanderers need a win, and their experienced players need to stand up here. The will take some heart from Bankstown officials saying they were unlucky last week, but after conceeding 8 from 2 games it is results and not nice words the team needs.

Can someone please tell the Bulls they aren't supposed to be doing this well? Confidence is sky high with the boys from Ninevah, and their promotion last year means they are accustomed to winning. They will fancy their chances against Eastern Suburbs too, and with their strikers scoring goals coach Joe Watson knows they have a good chance to add to this season's tally of 10 points.

Super Soccer tip - Eastern Suburbs to gain a hard-earned point here against the Bulls.

1999 - Eastern Suburbs Home Record - Played 3 Drawn 1 Lost 2 Goals For 4 Goals Against 8

Eastern Suburbs Top Scorer - Peter Pullicino 3 goals

Fairfield Bulls Away Record - Played 2 Won 1 Lost 1 Goals For 4 Goals Against 4

Fairfield Bulls Top Scorer - Salvatore Larocca, Matthew Borg 3 goals

1999 SEASON

NSW FIRST DIVISION PREVIEW

A C UNITED

Coach: Tony Henderson Players In: Various
Players Out: Bruno Beddoni, Zia Younan, Buddy Farah, Chad Gibson
Last season's position: 11th
Preview: There has been much activity at the Wetherill Park club this summer, with last year's player-coach Osvaldo El Ali threatening to hang up his boots. That is not likely to happen now, with the skilful Argentinean almost certain to carry on as a player while coaching the youth teams at the club.

Quality players like Vladan Radic and Attilio Labbozzetta have been retained and the club and its coach have been looking hard for players to take the place of those who have moved up to national league with Marconi.

Once their plans become clear they should be a good force, but there will be less margin for error in the more compact 12 team format this year, so they will need a reasonable start.
Prediction: This club is anticipating its best year to date and it has good leadership to guide it. Expect to find them up among the leaders all season
Player to Watch: Attilio Labbozzetta

AUBURN UNITED

Coach: Eddie Mcreadie
Players In: A host of new players, too numerous to mention.
Players Out: All bar Haydar Arslan and Kamal Codmani
Last season's position: 5th
Preview:
New coach Eddie Mcreadie is of the belief that despite starting with what amounts to a completely new side he can come up with a top four outfit at the first attempt.

That's a bold ambition for a new coach, but the Scot has been around a long time and his scouting missions around Sydney in the past few months could pay good dividends.

He retains the keeper Haydar Arslan and midfield schemer Kamal Codmani, but beyond this pair little is known as the team goes into its first game this weekend.

Trial form has been fair, if unspectacular, but Auburn teams have a habit of settling quickly into a winning groove so maybe Mcreadie will be right again on this occasion.
Prediction: Mid table at best
Player to Watch: Haydar Arslan

BATHURST 75

Coach: Marty Felice
Players In: Scott Mutton (Easts), Greg Pell (local), Glenn Wallace (local), Brad Gallard, Shane West, Shaun Brown
Players Out: Paul Waine, Ken Barwick
Last season's position: 10th
Preview: The club had a much tougher 1998 than expected due largely to then loss of Scott Mutton to Super League Easts and partly to a few other players being away for most of the year.

They have again suffered losses, with Ken Barwick accepting a teaching position in Junee and Paul Waine returning to Orange.

To compensate Greg Pell is back after a teaching stint and will boost the defence, while Brad Gallard is back after a season playing in the Central West League with Orange Waratahs.

Shane West should be able to step into the huge shoes of Paul Waine following his own retracing of the footsteps this year.

The local Soccer Academy is beginning to make its presence felt with a number of good local juniors working their way into the Under 18s and some are almost ready for first grade now.

Off the field, or maybe on it in some ways, the club is planning to light the main field so that night games can be played and is also to build a 500 seat grandstand.

The future continues to look bright for this go-ahead club who have advertised widely in Britain for players and have already received some worthwhile enquiries.

Prediction: Hard to judge with Bathurst, who are always good starters and lead the rest a merry chase for half the season before getting caught as they run into fitness problems with a small first grade squad. May do better this year if the new players can catch the opposition off guard.

Player to Watch: Justin Hadley

DULWICH HILL

Coach: Dennis Duarte

Players In: Phil Cacciola, Nick Boutis, Daniel Gomes

Players Out: Zaya Jebraiel, Victor Rebelo

Last season's position: 2nd Division Two on goal difference. Won promotion playoff.

Preview: Promoted after going through last year undefeated in the league, the Hill boys won the play off in sensational style at Lambert Park with a headed Alex dos Santos goal.

Doubts about the Brazilian's fitness and his interest in playing at a higher level have been the off season talking points, but if he is back soon he could set this division alight in much the same way he did the 2nd Division last year.

The return of Phil Cacciola from Stanmore does make up for the loss through injury of Victor Rebelo and the club has high hopes of Modar Sultan making the big step up to first grade successfully this year.

Sultan has been at the club a while and is developing nicely. He could make a big impact for the side coached again by Dennis Duarte this season.

Prediction: This may be a year of consolidation and that might not go down well with the demanding fans who follow the side keenly. Could sneak into the five with some extra effort, though and much depends on the availability of dos Santos .

Player to Watch: Modar Sultan

HURSTVILLE CITY MINOTAURS

Coach: Peter Sarikakis

Players In: Vlado Mickovski

Players Out: George Zabetakis, Louis Dounis, Jim Melissourgos,

Last season's position: 2nd

Preview:

The Minotaurs are always going to challenge strongly each year and why should this one be any exception?

They may have lost Louis Dounis and George Kalogeras, but Dario Fernandez, Tom Pontidas and Peter Papouthis are there again after flirting with the idea of joining other clubs. The absence of George Zabetakis and Jim Mellisourgos may also be felt, but this is one team that should never be underestimated.

Well led at the back for the umpteenth year by Sam Panagakis the Hurstville side should pick up where they left off last year as one of the big five in this division.

Players like Steve Kalamvokis, Steve Georgalis, Steve Dale, Angelo Kalamvokis, Chris Siagos and George Tretsallas give assurance for the future success of one of the most consistent teams in this division in recent years.

Prediction: Likely to have a better season now that some of their stars have elected to continue at the club after looking elsewhere initially; the Minotaurs should never be underestimated.

Player to Watch: Eric Vassiliadis

ILLAWARRA LIONS

Coach: Lube Jancev

Players In: Marshall Soper, Jim Mellisourgis, John Tretselas

Players Out: Luke Larfield

Last season's position 9th

Preview:

Prediction: Very keen to win it this year and do look the most likely to challenge Stanmore for the title.

MANLY-WARRINGAH

Coach: Tony Pezzano

Players In: Damen Pih, Dean Harding, Greg McKittrick, Adam Townsend, David Guzzo, Mark Goodwin

Players Out: Mark Beldham, Tony Krslovic, Steve Riches, Danny Townsend, Tim Preston

Last season's position: 4th

Preview:

This year should be one in which the achievements of 1998 are followed up and even improved upon. The loss of striker Tony Krslovic may not be the blow it at first seems as he missed a few games at the end of the season and the team seemed to manage very well.

The departure of Mark Beldham for Eastern Suburbs may be more keenly felt, however, as he was in top form as the year wound down.

The absence of Danny Townsend may be made good by the arrival of his brother Adam who is reported to be even quicker!

Dave Guzzo has also come back and that will be something to gladden the hearts of a large section of the supporters who missed his midfield probings.

Dean Harding is an excellent signing as the player was one of the stars for the Dolphins during their best Super League years.

Meanwhile the reliable Derek Herron and highly regarded Kelvin Foster should both be set for good seasons again in defensive roles.

Damien Rosenthal was sensational at times last season, if overshadowed by the acclaim given to team mate Townsend, but this year could go further and become the team's leading scorer after a purple patch towards the end of the last campaign.

With a highly respected coach and a successful one at that in Tony Pezzano the Dolphins have every right to expect a promotion-chasing season.

Prediction: This could be another good year for the Dolphins, despite the loss of a few good players. The area does produce a few good 'uns and the local content may see them occupy a top five spot again this term.

Player to Watch: Adam Townsend

MOOREBANK SPORTS

Coach: Alfredo Barrios

Players In: Lee Heselworth, Isaac Abera, Louis Contigiani

Players Out: Martin Driene, Anthony Driene, Antony Versi, Stuart Key,

Last season's position: 8th

Preview:

This could be a tough year for Moorebank, but Alfredo Barrios is no mug and it is hard to see the side going too long without some success.

While they have lost some key players such as Stuart Key and the Driene boys, the coach has brought in some good young players and promoted some talented ones from the younger grades.

Local star Peter Moon is captain and is an ideal man for the role with his defensive capabilities and leadership qualities, allied to attacking skills and an inspiring on and off field presence.

Scott Watkins is a defensive player who figures in the midfield plans and this could well be the year when Watkins makes the big impact he has been promising to do.

On the left the club is well served by wing back Adam Young whose speed and flair could bring many opposition markers unstuck.

It could take a little while for the team to click, but they may surprise a few team early on as well.

Prediction: Might be another year of industry and some highlights, but no real likelihood of success in the finals. Just below

Paul Carter, player/coach St George

PENRITH PANTHERS

Coach: Stan Ackerley

Players In: Bob Casserly, Ben Wright, Steve Sweeney, Scott Ashton

Players Out: Javi Martinez, Troy Armstrong

Last season's position: 6th

Preview:

There is absolutely no reason why the Panthers cannot improve on last year' strong showing and break into the top five this season.

They have recruited well and also have Chris Ackerley back on duty after a nasty injury early last season.

In Bob Casserly and Scott Ashton they have picked up two vastly experienced defenders who can also play in other spots in the team when required.

The speedy Ben Wright is the kind of player coach Stan Ackerley has a lot of time for and the rugged Steve Sweeney should serve the club well too.

Much will depend this year on how the team settled down at their new ground in Penrith proper after a few years roaming between Penrith Park outer and Cook Park St Marys.

This 'homecoming' may make all the difference to them and with bigger crowds they could get a home identity to urge them along.

ROCKDALE CITY SUNS

Coach: Gerry Gomez

Players In: John Manalopoulos, Sydney Rogic, Tony Elek, Marco Quintao, Alex Aravena, Stelios Sampsonis, Bernard Sheary, Gerry Gomez (coach)

Players Out: Iain Macdonald, Keegan Pillay, Enzo Sansone, Alex Kotavich

Last season's position: 7th

Preview:

Under the guidance of their new coach Gerry Gomez, Rockdale may be ready now to pose a challenge for a long awaited return to Super League.

Some good players have been signed and the influence of Gomez is sure to be felt both on the field and off it.

Having said that the loss of Iain Macdonald will be keenly felt and to a similar extent the brilliance of Keegan Pillay will also be missed by both the players in the team and by the supporters.

It is a blend of young and old, of new and established players which could pay off in the second half of the season.

Prediction: Expected to challenge strongly for promotion under Gerry Gomez and might just get there.

Player to Watch: Bill Petrovski

ST GEORGE

Coach: Paul Carter

Players In: Roger Conroy, Stefan Janic, Louis Dounis, Tim Preston, Angelo Correia, Gordon Sutherland

Players Out: Alex Araujo, Fabio Macolino, John Pillemer, Mirko Radosavljevic, Adrian Malachino, Jimmy Corbo, Ben Price,

Last season's position: 12th Super League - relegated

Preview:

The list of players to leave the club grew to large proportions when the club was at the crossroads late last year, but player-coach Paul Carter has turned things around with some astute signings and arguably the strongest front runners in the section.

In coaxing Stefan Janic to have at least one more year in Sydney he has done very well and this ace marksman joins his former Polonia team mate, the club's assistant coach Richard Lasek at St George Stadium, renewing an old association.

Louis Dounis may not have had a vintage year in 1998 after carrying all before him the previous season, but there is still plenty of life left in those legs and the finishing ability is still there.

The speedy Tim Preston will also be a handy asset while former Portugal-based Angelo Correia could prove to be a real surprise packet.

Prediction: Keen to get back in Super League a moderate campaign is expected, with a steady build up as the season unfolds. Could hover around the edges of the top five this time.

Player to Watch: Gordon Sutherland

STANMORE HAWKS

Coach: Eddie Briscoe

Players In: Malcolm Adams, Soc Bakafoukas, Pablo Morales, Ross Poulos, Frank Ilagua

Players Out: Achilles Markopoulos, George Maglis, Nick Konstantinou

Last season's position: 3rd

Preview:

The Hawks are really reaching for the stars this year, or at least then Championship.

They have a very young, but well settled side build over a few seasons now and still maturing nicely.

Eddie Briscoe will be able to take more of a back seat having signed two excellent strikers, one from interstate, via Scotland and the other a fresh face from overseas.

The club looks solid going into the new campaign and with a young and dynamic team with speed to burn they should go pretty close to achieving their objectives this year.

Prediction: Must be the favourites after two good years and very little change in personnel. Eddie Briscoe needs to instil a little more focus on a weekly basis as too often in the past there have been unnecessary lapses and these have meant the difference between winning the league and finishing just off the pace.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE ROUND ONE REVIEW

Three teams got the Super Youth league off to a perfect start in games played on Saturday. Parramatta Eagles won comfortably in all grades against Eastern Suburbs, while Sydney Olympic and Southern Districts did the same to the Central Coast and Manly-Warringah respectively.

The Eagles were too strong for the boys from Eastern Suburbs, with the G13's winning 5-1, the G14's 4-1 and both the G15's and G16's winning 6-0.

The strong Sydney Olympic junior were also amongst the goals against the Central Coast, winning 5-1 in G13's, 8-0 in G14's. The G15's got up 5-2 and the G16's won a closer match 3-1.

Southern Districts four victories against Manly-Warringah was all the more creditable as it was away from home, and it didn't seem to bother the Southern Districts juniors as they won 3-1 in the G13's, 4-0 in the G14's, 5-0 in the G15's and 2-1 in the Grade 16's.

Blacktown City Demons and Newcastle Breakers ended up with honours even after their games at the Gabbie Stadium, with the away team winning the G14's 2-1 and the G16's 1-0, but the Demons took the G13's 4-0 and the G15's 1-0.

Wollongong and Southern Branch enjoyed some close encounters in their battle at Brandon Park, with the Wolves winning both the G14's and G15's 3-2, and the G13's sharing a 1-1 draw. Southern Branch enjoyed victory though in the G16's, picking up a 1-0 victory.

Sutherland and Macarthur both collected five points each from their matches, with both the G13's and G16's drawing 1-1. Continuing the tight battle the Sharks beat the Rams 1-0 in the G14's, but the Rams came back in the G15's to win 2-0.

In the battle of the two NSL clubs, Marconi Fairfield juniors were too strong for Sydney United, winning all grades except the G14's. The G13's and G16's finished 2-0 to Marconi, and the G15's went one better in winning 3-0.

Sydney United picked up their first points for the season though in winning the Grade 14's 3-2, made all the more meritable by coming back from 2-0 down at one stage.

Gladesville Hornsby also got off to a good start against the Tigers of Leichhardt, winning the first three grades until Leichhardt earned a 2-0 victory in G16. Before that however the Gladesville Hornsby team won G13's 2-0, G14's 1-0 and G15's 4-1.

seemed able to shake off the Coasties defence at will, especially down the left side, but wasted a number of excellent chances, blasting the ball over the bar twice and into the side netting once.

In the 83rd minute a quick clearance saw Coasties substitute Clint Smith break free down the left side and beat an overly ambitious Frank Mikuletic, who was caught 30 yards from goal. Fortunately for the home fans, Smith's shot on goal was not enough to beat a retreating Anthony Tesoro, who was able to mop up the danger.

As if to make the point that fortunes can change in an instant in a soccer match, Tesoro's clearance saw the ball immediately switched to the Coasties penalty area, with best afield Tom Badzaric taking the ball past three Coasties defenders on a marvellously skilful run to slot the ball past Meier and put the result of the game beyond doubt.

The home fans were given a final cause for celebration when in the 86th minute, a long throw from Mikuletic to Lansdowne near the half way flag was played through to Hassan Kdouh who then made a perfectly timed run to sneak behind two defenders.

Kdouh, with only Meier to beat, shot emphatically into the roof of the net, and would have been delighted to have finally registered on the scoresheet after an enormous number of opportunities.

Coasties coach Allan Bourke put a brave face on the defeat, acknowledging the result to be a fair one, and citing the lack of experience in his squad as a major factor.
